

Good evening all,

First things first . . .

Anybody seen Steve?!

Last definite info I got was he was ready to roll some chick at the concert Saturday night for a guitar pic belonging to Travis Tritt but his gentlemanly nature got the better of him and he spared her. After that it's all a blurrrrrr. Somebody heard from somebody who knows somebody from somewhere USA that he was going to sleep in this morning and the rest is a mystery. Gary's hoping for fog because he has the perfect lamps for it. And, if you need a quick fix, Gary will tell you Spanky's your man. And if none of this makes sense to you . . . then you should have been at the Texas State HOG Rally this weekend. We had a blast! Rally okay, company amazing, Margarita in a glass so BIG you could drown your face in it, spectacularly delicious!

A shout out to our Lead and Sweep, Gary and Greg. "You did a great job! We rode, we had a great time, and now we are all tucked safely in our homes. Thanks!!!"

Only a couple of items this weeks:

Friday, 5/20 - Bob Beard Elementary in Helotes, 5th grade class program, 8am-10am. Our newest member, Leslie Lara, won the contest from last week. Within 10 minutes of sending my Calientegram she responded with a list of all the information behind your membership cards. Congratulations!

Thanks to everyone else who responded. It's nice to know someone out there is actually reading my Calientegram 😊

Well guys it's been a fun-filled weekend and I'm tires so I'm signing out earlier than usual.
