

We cancelled the ride because of what? But we live in South Texas!

Oh well, our ride to Su Casa Cafe had to be cancelled due to the winter weather advisories. I fled northern Wisconsin to get away from winter weather advisories!

Fortunately, our new ride schedule has a built in backup plan for weather issues. If a ride is cancelled, it moves to the following week at the same time. So with that said, today's ride now becomes next Sunday's ride.

What we did last week:

Nothing... nada... a quiet week without a meeting or a ride.

Well, I'm sure some of you enjoyed the St Valentine's Day Massacre events. Feel free to send our photographer Lavar "Snapshot" Mathena any interesting pictures of chapter members in action there.

What's coming up this week:

Sunday, Feb 19th - Ride to Su Casa Cafe, Seguin TX

KSU 10:30a (Safety briefing begins at 10:15a)

Lead RC - Matt "Maine Dragon Slayer" Boober; Sweep RC - Dee "Deester" Duarte

2nd Group Lead RC - Frank "Comback" Deyo; Sweep RC - Gary "Kick It" Sitler

Ride Rating: Medium/Advanced

Other news:

Don't forget about the LOH brunch at Milano Cafe (on Wurzbach - website:

<http://milanosa.com/wurzbach/index.htm>) on Sunday, Feb 26th. This is an LOH event but everyone is invited. If you'd like to attend, please RSVP to Eva "White Tail" Mathena at eva.mathena@gmail.com.

Our first newsletter of 2012 has been posted in the member's section for your reading pleasure. Here's the link: (<http://calientehog.com/private/newsletters/2012/newsletter2011-02.pdf>)

The chapter's first overnight ride for 2012 to Sonora is tentatively scheduled for March 31st through April 1st. Keep those dates on your calendar if you are interested in a nice long ride to the caverns. More to follow as we get closer to the ride.

Do you ever wish the chapter would have a ride to (insert your favorite place here)? If so, please send me, or to any of the chapter officers, your ideas.

Hope next week is warm and sunny.

Squirrel Out