Saturday's ride was nice and easy, just the way we like them. If only everything was like that.

What we did last week:

Alayha "Taz" and Greg "Chach" took 12 bikes and riders up to Texas Pride. Good food and a nice easy ride there and back before it got to hot.

In an ironic twist, this weeks safety tip involves a squirrel. I took a ride the other night and a squirrel darted out in front of me and then stopped. I made it around him safely and I credit the advanced riders course for that skill. If you haven't taken it yet, I can honestly say it is highly worth your time.
