

Short Sleeves and Sun Screen Saturday, Ice Box SundayWhat we did last week:

An adventuresome group of 10 bikes, 2 trikes, and 13 souls took off for Laredo early Saturday morning. It began a bit cold and a little misty. The ride was uneventful and when we got there, boy howdy did we get some awesome hospitality. They fed us and made us all feel very welcome indeed. By the time we were ready to return, we had to strip down to our short sleeves and pass the sun screen because it was HOT.

Sunday was a complete opposite. Cold, colder, coldest for the 7 bikes and 9 souls hard core enough to endure it to see another added to our Road Captain roster. Congrats Abel! We look forward to the ride you have planned for us this year.

In other news:

Just a reminder about event types in case you forgot:

[Member Event] An event only open to active members of Caliente HOG.

[Closed Event] An event open to any active member of Caliente HOG and their guests. Most of our events are closed. Yes you can bring guest so long as there is always at least one more member than guest at the event. If guests exceed members, then it becomes a...

[Open Event] An event open to anyone, any bike type. These are often the dealer events like the weekend's Easter Egg Hunt and the Blessing of the Bikes

A Caliente HOG welcome to Hector, Terry and Dailia who are our newest members of our Caliente HOG family.

For the next few weeks, always bring a sweater and some sun screen cause ya just never know around here.

Finally, a big thanks to everyone who e-mailed or IM'd me so I wouldn't forget about the calientegram this week. Much appreciated. :-)

Respectfully, Your Squirrel
