

Weather Was A Factor

What we did last week:

Saturday's LOH ride was diverted to the closest Cracker Barrel due to fog so thick you couldn't see your speedometer and a terrible driving rain! Actually, it was a little wet but better safe than sorry. We'll reschedule it for April 5th after the Chapter Social.

Sunday's Eval ride for Bill was a different story with some very brave and hard core riders fighting some serious wind and a rain potential and to go somewhere new to eat. It was an uneventful ride, not counting the cooler, chair and other trash in the road, and we now have a new road captain in our midst. Congratulate Bill when you see him next.

What's coming up this week:

No chapter events this weekend. However, there's a ride map on the wall outside of the training room at Caliente if you are looking for a place to ride anyway.
