

A note from your Director:

During the Sunday ride I was in charge of the second group. I failed in my Road Captain responsibilities and did not take the group to a safe turn around spot when I missed my turn but instead I just whipped it around and figure the group would follow. In the confusion of the turnaround, two members had gone further down the road to safely turn around and went accounted for by the sweep, rover and myself until we were on FM 471. My deepest apologies to Glen and Cindi. I promise this will never happen again on my watch.

What we did last week:

Sunday July 13 2014 was Gonzo's E-Val ride what an awesome ride the weather fantastic and the roads were smooth and nice. The chapter started out with 36 people and 27 Harleys. The first half of the ride was beautiful riding along Medina pond and heading out to Bandera where we stopped for fuel and a break. Then on to Bea and Gonzo's by way of Hondo, Castroville and La Costa for some grub. Along the way there were a couple of mishaps a front wheel bearing going out and a mix up. Once we arrived at Bea and Gonzo's house we were treated to what was an excellent lunch. Drinks, potato salad, cold cuts, chicken, chips, and some very fine salsa. We returned back to Caliente HD with full stomachs and a thank you to Bea and Gonzo for a great ride and meal.
