Caliente Gram 10 May 2015

Hopefully Madam Secretary gets her internet back soon!

LOH Mother's Day Breakfast Ride to Sandra's in Spring Branch, TX

7 Bikes, 3 Trikes, 14 Riders started out with a mellow straight shot ride to Sandra's where we arrived just before some heavy rain. Had some awesome breakfast tacos and plates with the usual laughs and great socializing. When it was time for the return trip, we had no choice but to head out in rain. Thank you Robert Rodriguez. Your wish came true. (Practice Rain Riding)

Thank you Pedro for your LRC through some nice curvy scenic country roads. I also heard compliments of your cautious leadership through these wet curvy roads. Great event Bling (Bea) LOH Director. Thank you, yours truly, Gonzo, for the SRC. Everyone back safe. Gonzo

Important Information about the Texas Rally from the Assistant Director

KSU for Thursday, 14 May at 0700 (that is 7am... in the morning ... for you disbelieving folks) to depart for Tyler. I'll brief at 0645 - don't be late.

At this point, we have no scheduled group departures for Friday, 15 May. If anyone has since decided otherwise, let me know and I will try to hook you up with anyone else who is departing on Friday so you can make arrangements to ride up together.

Expect a relatively loooooong ride. By the way, we go - rain or shine. The intent is to (1) safely get up to Tyler, (2) knock out registration, then (3) hit the hotel/motel to unpack and then (4) get back to the Rally site that evening for the festivities. F2

Road Warrior Program

Hey gang, the Road Warrior Program is still humming along. Remember, print off your form and find either Frank Deyo (F1), Frank Knapp (F2), Merry Carrazana, Beverly Schippmann or Greg Valdez and have them sign off on your form (i.e. one of the 4 Primary Chapter Officers or the Head Road Captain). For you Chinese Kung Fu movie fanatics, you can call us the 5 Fingers of Death. If you are a Monty Python type of person, call us the 4 Fingers and the Thumb... Either way, I spared you another "sinko de Mayo" joke so be glad... Your mileage starts at the point one of us sign off on your form. We will then take control of the form. F2 will keep the original copy and will provide you a copy asap. Good Luck. F2

RIP

The wx has been a tad goofy. We will try to make it happen again after the Rally. Pencil in Thursday the 21st. of May. MTF as we get closer. F2
