Caliente H.O.G. Ride to Laredo H-D on Saturday Jan.23, 2016

What a Ride! Great weather for a 'Ride Day' was long overdue.

15 Bikes and 18 Riders headed out at 32 degrees. Cold?? Naww, everyone was dressed for it. We continued out for an unscheduled ride through Historical business route of Dilley, TX where we acknowledged to appreciate Truck Stop size restrooms after 30 minutes in a line of 18 leather geared up Bikers with coffee filled bladders at a Single Unisex restroom. Funny? Not really for the last few in line. Great times at our Laredo destinations where Chili's was very hospitable and served us some great food and the H-D Dealership welcomed us with lots of courtesy and friendly smiles. As we headed back to Caliente, Yes, everyone cleared the Border Patrol check-point. We were then honored with another unscheduled drive through the Historical business route of Cotulla, TX. "The South Texas History Ride"??? Above and beyond with Caliente... Even though our leader of the day had some bike issues, at the end of it all, everyone was returned Safe and Sound.

Thank you LRC F1 'SoulSucker' and SRC 'Gonzo' for the leadership of a great ride.
