Roy Maas Ride

Well, despite all the doom and gloom of projected rain, tornadoes, locusts, volcanoes erupting, and what have you, we had a very successful ride out to Roy Maas on Saturday. Actually, the rain held off as the man above evidently approved of our holiday efforts because the sun came out and made the ride very enjoyable. We had 9 bikes (about dozen or so folks) and several vehicles make the trip. In our journey out to Boerne, we saw some areas that we haven't ridden through in a while, but it was fun. F1, in the Bad Santa suit, had all the cars pulling up with kids of all ages waiving and taking pictures. Not long before we arrived, we pulled over and Bad Mrs. Santa (CiCi) jumped on the back of Bad Santa's sleigh and rode in the rest of the way. A number of kids came down to assist us in unloading the gifts and we had a great time interacting with them. Most of us had to depart not long after we unloaded the trailer, but a few stayed and went for a tour. All in all, a very rewarding day. Hats off to Johnny in setting up this event.

Sunday Luncheon Ride to Fratello's

Italian Food, This is the Place!!!!

Thank you LRC 'Shadow' (Abel) for the short, sweet ride to an awesome lunch. 4 Bikes, 1 Trike and 8 Riders had no problem with some slightly wet roads and somewhat cold temperatures. This place is well worth a repeat.

SRC 'Gonzo' (Pete)

As the holidays approach...lets be extra careful when you are out riding. People are in such a rush or distracted... Wishing You Safe Travels, Peace and Joy This Holiday Season.
