

CALIENTE HOG #2013

Caliente Gram July 08, 2018

The weather cooperated and we all had another great time LEADING off the Festivities in Comfort TX by our taking position number one in their Parade that wined through this wonderful town. Jack proudly carried the US colors and our Chapter's colors on his trike. Looks like we had a combination of 15 bikes/trikes with 25 folks representing our Chapter. The kids all knew what was coming as they all had Halloween-esq bags waiting for the back-seaters on our bikes to throw candy out to them and we didn't disappoint. After the parade we went through the back woods of Comfort to get to a great restaurant where we all sat down for lunch. The ride back to San Antonio was relaxing as many of us went home via the Scenic Route going through the backside of Helotes and Boerne. All in all another great run.

Had our Chapter meeting yesterday where we welcomed a new member, celebrated some birthdays, and gave away a brand new car. Ok, maybe no car but thanks to Liz and Melody from the dealership, we again made out like fat cats. F1 grilled burgers and hotdogs to perfection and we had a successful fundraiser due to his and a number of other Chapter Members who stayed behind to lend a hand. Appreciate the effort by all.

Stay tuned to the Calientegram as we have a whole lot of rides to include some overnights and other activities coming up which should catch your eye. Hope everyone is enjoying their summer and I look forward to seeing you at our events and on the road.

Regards,
Frank Knapp Director
