Odds and Ends:

4/11/2020 -LOH Zoom Meeting Summary

Great to see the LOH that joined in the conversation on Saturday at 9:30 after minor audio trouble. It was good to catch up and share stories. We are grateful that all are doing well in these uncertain times. We look forward to seeing and hearing from additional LOH at our next chat via Zoom LOH meeting in May. Abby

Tell me something good:

Reminder if you would like to share a story with your Caliente Family, just send me the details and I will send it out to the group.

Today my family did a zoom conference call. I am 1 of 6 kids, so it was nice to be able to be with my soon to be 91 year old mom and see all of my siblings, nieces and nephews, and great nephews as well. We were able to get caught up on how everyone is doing, some working from home, but the majority are still going into the office. We probably were able to share more than if we had all been in the same room together. I can't wait til I can hug and kiss my family but at least with the technology, we were able to see each other.

Well I hope everyone had a blessed Easter Celebration, although different than years past, but a celebration all the same. All my love Caliente Family.
