ODDS AND ENDS...

Come to the meeting Saturday and we will announce our new Sgt. At Arms.

- > Saturday, 27 February, 8 riders on 4 bikes and 3 trikes took to the road at 10:00 from Caliente H-D under drizzle and foggy skies. Temps were not hot and not cold (but just right).
- > Unfortunately the drizzle turned to light sprinkles before we could get to Alamo Ranch and was off and on thru Bandera. We encountered thick fog on the way to Center Point. Eventually, the weather improved becoming cloudy with no precipitation by Comfort where we took a break at The Memorial and then headed up for lunch at Altstadt Brewery on Hwy 290 East of Fredericksburg.
- > Lunch took a while to get served, but we were entertained by a live band playing traditional German Beer Hall tunes.
- > Our return to the dealership was under partly cloudy skies. The route took us past Luckenbach, and through Sisterdale & Boerne. We arrived at Caliente by 16:30. Total distance was 168 miles.
- > LRC: Tony
- > SRCs: David & Mitch

- > Tony Williams
- > 210-394-8016

> Congratulations to David Algarin for completing his Road Captain training!

> Please join us on our next Chapter Ride, Saturday, 6 March, following our Chapter Social (no fundraiser that day). Destination is Panna Maria, TX, and the "oldest Polish parish In America", Immaculate Conception, an historic 'painted Church'. KSU: High Noon!
