ODDS AND ENDS...

It was wonderful seeing all the smiling faces yesterday. Spring has sprung and it is a perfect time to get out for some wind therapy. Exciting news: The Chapter has been added to the bike buyer's 'fun walk'. Our table is in the front, to the right once you enter the store. Our own David Lindsey and 'Crow' Joseph Fisher will be there to inform the individuals about our Chapter. Abby Perez, our awesome LOH rep, designed the flyer that is available for them to take. I sincerely hope you three know how much I appreciate your efforts on behalf of this Chapter. A mailbox is available at the table. In this day of electronic communication anonymity has all but gone by the wayside. And yet, some people may not be comfortable voicing their opinion any other way than anonymously. Please utilize the mailbox for suggestions, complaints and solutions, and yes, even positive comments.

The H.O.G. display case is located nearby and Liz has ordered some official H.O.G. merchandise. Under Events please make a note that we will be setting up for the fundraiser on March 13th at 11 am. The party is scheduled for 12 -4.

March 27- Casey is desperately seeking help with parking, etc. She will be showing her gratitude.

April 3 is our Social/Fundraiser and Caliente's annual Easter Egg Hunt. Our Chapter has always enjoyed helping with this activity and this year should be a lot of fun.

April 17 we will be remembering Jesse Fernandez with a ride and fundraiser to benefit a charity. More details to follow.

Please keep Katy and Lou Neuman in your prayers as they recover from Covid and Gene Skinner as he deals with health issues.

Special salute to Clint Marzec for stepping forward to be Sgt. At Arms.

Congratulations to Rudy Mancha as our February Volunteer of the month.

Thanks, Bobbi Burt, Director, CCSA

Since our chapter fundraiser was moved to Saturday, 13 March, to coincide with a Dealership event, it was decided that a Chapter Ride was in order. At High Noon, 11 riders on 5 bikes & 5 trikes mounted up and headed North to enjoy some juicy 1/2 pound burgers, topped with whatever you can imagine at Chunky's on Callahan Road. Once again, Great food (I packed half of mine to-go!) and Great conversations (at an appropriate 'social distance'). After our photo-document was completed (thanks to Arturo's ever handy tripod and Abby's sprinting skill), most riders tapped out and went their own ways.

Those who still wanted to ride decided to amend the planned route. We chose to head West to get out of San Antonio traffic and into the scenic TX Hill Country. We visited Lakehills and Wharton's Dock on the Medina River, as-well-as taking a quick touch-and-go at Bandera and Helotes. Our travels took us up Hwy 211, out PR 37, up Hwy 1283, up, down and around 1460' Liebold Peak, down The English Crossing, over the Medina River, up Hwy 173, down Hwy 16 and past 1828' Polly's Peak. 100 miles of twisty hills and distant vistas. It was a perfect 65° sunny day.
