Odds and Ends

I am grateful to all who brought food out yesterday for the Annual Employee Appreciation lunch. Everyone enjoyed the good food and lively fellowship. Johnny Perez thought I had poisoned him with my Creamy White Chili. Lol, he is lactose intolerant and that chili is made with sour cream and heavy whipping cream. Lesson learned.

Raul's Ride was attended by at least 8 Chapter members. There was a total of 35 bikes that wound our way through D'hanis, Devine, Hondo, and Mico under crisp, clear blue skies. Thank you to Towne and Dave Lindsey for assisting Johnny in managing traffic at intersections and highway on ramps.

Sadly, our buddy, Amos, the owner of Bradley's has sold the place and is hitting the road in his RV. We wish him safe travels. Therefore, we are rescheduling our November social back to normal time at the dealership. Come join us out back by service for the social and a Friendsgiving celebration. Ride safe and God bless. Bobbi
