Odds and Ends

We had a pleasantly unexpected turnout on a cool sunny morning for our seafood run to Aransas Pass. Our group was 7 trikes, 3 bikes, and 13 folks. It was nice to see faces we hadn’t seen on rides in a while. The trip down started getting warm and layers were coming off at our gas stops, but those sea breezes felt great! Lunch at Mickey's Bar and Grill satisfied the seafood lovers among us. It was SO good! The ride home was getting warmer – so warm, in fact, that we made an impromptu DQ stop for ice cream south of Karnes City (Thanks again Pete!). KSU 0910, KSD 1755. My trip odometer showed 320 miles, Google map says 328 miles RT. Lou did a great job as SRC (Chief Cat Wrangler) and Abby showed us all why she should be Chief Photographer. We could make this an annual official ride, and a more frequent Unofficial destination.

Tony Williams, LRC

PLEASE note that the fundraiser for Humor for Heroes has been changed to June 4th.
