Odds and Ends

Humor for Heroes Event - We raised $1376.76 at this Event. We had 13 vendors and it looks like at least one dog was adopted. We want to thank the dealership for allowing the dogs indoors and out of the heat! It was a really really good time even if it was really hot! Next year April it is!!! Thanks to all of the Chapter Members that helped make this event a success by staying to help. Frank on the grill all day long and Abby making sure the Celebrity Chefs feel comfortable. It was a great turn out for help for sure!!!! Lynda Thanks to Lynda and Venita for coordinating the vendors and getting them set up. Diane

Trip Report - Ride to Mid-Point of Route 66, Amarillo TX - 28-29 May 2022

Stopped at WASP museum, Avenger Field, Sweetwater, 1300.

Highest temp endured - 108°F in Tulia

550 miles for this leg.

Departed hotel 0800, 29 May. 70°F

Visited Mid-Point sign in Adrian and took pics. Met about a dozen really cool riders who had come over from Ireland, rented Harleys, and were riding the entire Route 66 length. One appreciative rider gave Katy a souvenir Irish flag after we all took pictures for each other.

Stopped at Cadillac Ranch on the way back to Amarillo and saw the painted cars.

Departed Amarillo at 1130-ish. Arrived San Antonio at 2100. 98°F. Highest temp was 105°F at Big Springs. 647 miles for this leg.

Total trip length - 1197 miles. Windy for entire trip, return was in strong headwinds. Will post route map in trip folder at Caliente.

I'm officially giving up on Chapter long rides in summer temps. I'm too old for this heat! Tony Williams
