Odds and Ends

Nice cool morning at KSU where 1 trike, 5(!) bikes, and 8 members went for a lunch ride at Lakehouse Restaurant in Kerrville. Clear highways and plenty of seating is available at 1100 opening time on Sunday mornings! Had a few notable obstructions on the way up - a huge banner blocked the turnaround beneath the IH-410 bridge near Caliente, a stalled pickup in the middle of an intersection on Rt211, and a few deer out for a morning stroll in Medina. Morning was still cool (86°F) and sunny. Today's ride using the full length of Rt 211 showed us a nice new way to avoid all of the sprawling suburbia of outer Alamo Ranch construction. Arrived back to Caliente at 1335 with only 98°F. 176 miles. LRC was Tony and SRC was Zorro. It was nice to have Brad back healthy and riding again!

CORRECTION - Confirmed with Eric, portraits of veterans are FREE OF CHARGE to vets. Each vet receives an 11"x14" print and a digital file for unrestricted personal use at NO CHARGE, but donations are always accepted. Only additional pictures of specific personal design, family members, and special requests cost a flat fee of $35. - Tony 210-394-8016
