Odds and Ends

We had a nice crew head out for bike night on Thursday at the Treehouse. We had 4 trikes and 2 bikes. We had two new participants join us Kaela S. (daughter of Adrienne and Kevin) and Nelia V. (a friend of Martin and Daisy) our joint L.A.M.A. friends. As we took our usual trip to The Treehouse, all arrived ready to enjoy the evening. The lucky recipient of the Caliente raffle was Kaela who won a winter beanie for those cold Nebraska nights and a challenge coin. Nice prizes for a guest. Hope to see ya at the next bike night!! Keep your eyes on the Calientegram for the next date and time. Ron.

I want to say a big THANK YOU to all who helped out at Saturday's burger burn and fund raiser. Despite having a lot of competition, we managed to hold our own. It is the dedication of our volunteers that make our chapter thrive. I hope to see all of you at our next fundraiser. Respectfully. Ken, Activities Director

Subject: Ride Summary: Caliente Harley-Davidson to Four-Way Bar & Grill

Hi everyone, What a great day for a ride, good food, and even better camaraderie! We kicked things off at Caliente Harley-Davidson, with eight trikes, two bikes, and two cages joining us for a lunchtime adventure. From Caliente, we traveled down 410 to Highway 90, continued toward 211, and then headed west on 1283. As with any good ride, we had a little adventure along the way. We missed our turn at the Dancing Bear Cantina, so the group made a "coordinated" U-turn and headed back north before continuing to the Four-Way Bar & Grill in Lake Hills, Texas. This ride was especially memorable because our beloved Biker Mama Bobbi was back on her trike, riding and having fun with the gang again. Seeing her out there with us, enjoying the ride and fellowship, made the day even more special. When we arrived at the Four-Way, we relaxed, shared stories, and enjoyed a delicious lunch. The burgers and wraps were great, the beer was cold, and the Bloody Marys were fantastic. Most importantly, we enjoyed the camaraderie that makes these rides so special.

After a wonderful lunch and plenty of laughs, it was time to say our goodbyes. We exchanged high-fives, hugs, and well wishes before heading our separate ways home. Another great day is in the books with an amazing group of people. The miles are fun and the food is good, but it is the people and the memories we make together that make every ride worthwhile. Until the next ride—keep the shiny side up and the rubber side down! Best, Warren
